THE LORD IS RISEN-HAPPY EASTER

It seemed for the disciples that all was lost. Their Lord, master, teacher and friend was tried as a criminal and left to die on a cross. However, when Peter and the beloved disciple (John), run to the tomb, they both discover that there is no body in the tomb. While the beloved disciple "saw and believed" it took some time for the power of the resurrection to reach the hearts of the other disciples. Even after Mary Magdala, John and Peter recognize that the Lord is risen, the others are still terrified and locked behind a closed door out of fear. In the Gospel of Mark it takes a while for the disciples to really believe.

I think we all struggled with our faith since the Covid-19 pandemic hit last March. Recall that our churches were closed for Easter. We were on lockdown, isolated and many were sick or dead. Now, we are slowly coming out of the dark. Fr. James Martin SJ in an article entitled "The Risen Christ and Daily Life" writes that the disciples "failed to realize that they are dealing with the living God, the same one whose message to Mary at the during the annunciation was 'Nothing is impossible with God.'" They could not see beyond the walls of that closed room. They were unwilling to accept that God was greater than their imaginations". The resurrection tells us that with God all things are certainly possible.

We are tempted to become discouraged when we face crisis after crisis in our lives especially during this pandemic. Often, we may feel alone, isolated or paralyzed by our sins and we end up in the dark closed room not allowing God to restore us with new life. We may fall into despair that is far darker than death. Fr. Martin tells us that "this is the time to turn to the Resurrection".

When Peter and John discovered the wrappings in the tomb rolled up, it told them that death no longer had a hold on Jesus. When the women came to the tomb in the Gospel of Mark and found the stone moved away it signified that Jesus had pushed death aside.

Jesus is victorious! By our baptism, we share in his new life of victory. It is because of the resurrection that "we not called to live behind closed doors of darkness, doubt, fear and death."

We are called to come out of our hiding and accompany Mary Magdala, Peter and the Beloved disciple, weeping sometimes, searching always and ultimately be moved to joy by the dawn of the resurrection.

"The risen Christ teaches us that we are called to believe what the disciples have seen with their eyes but we see with faith. May we never give up because with God everything is POSSIBLE!

The resurrection calls us to look for signs of the risen Jesus. We have seen Jesus in praying at home, worshipping online, helping families who are hungry, nurses, doctors and EMT's on the front line. This past Saturday we witnessed an incredible act of love where Malverne raised over 16, 000 pounds of food through our OLL Souper Scavenger Hunt for our St. Vincent DePaul Soup Kitchen. I want to thank Linda Baldacchino and her team for organizing this event over the past 12 years. Thank you to all who participated. You are signs of the risen Jesus! This was a real communion event.

If God can move a simple large stone away from the tomb, how much more can God do with our hearts if we trust and have faith in Him.

WHAT'S HAPPENING AROUND OUR FACILITIES

We have a new risen Christ statue that was generously donated by one of our parishioners. I am deeply grateful to our donor whose donation helped to enhance the beauty of Easter in our church.

Have you noticed the sparkling floors in the church. They were shined and cleaned just in time for Easter.

Happy Easter everybody! On behalf of Fr. Eugene, Deacons Rich, Greg and our entire parish staff may I wish you and your family and friends a very happy and blessed Easter. May the risen Christ dwell in your hearts forever! May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families with joy. Our Lady of Lourdes, pray for us!

Christus surrexit, sicut dixit, alleluia! Christ is risen as he said! Alleluia!

Family Connection

Within normal family life, there are many opportunities for conflict. Jesus did not promise us the absence of conflict in our lives. Instead, He gave us the gifts of peace, forgiveness, and reconciliation so that we could reduce conflict. The measure of Christian family life is not the absence of conflict, but the manner in which conflict is resolved. Filled with the gift of the Holy Spirit, we ask Jesus to help us to bring peace and forgiveness to situations of conflict in our families.

As your family gathers, take this opportunity to examine how your family resolves conflict. Recall a recent argument or disagreement and discuss how the conflict was resolved. Consider whether the conflict was resolved peacefully, in the spirit of Jesus. If not, discuss alternatives that might be tried in the future. Read together today's Gospel, John 20:19-31. Recall that we have each received Jesus' gift of the Holy Spirit and that the Holy Spirit helps us to be people who forgive others and seek peace. Pray together the Prayer to the Holy Spirit or the Peace Prayer of Saint Francis.

Pray for Priests

God, our Father, please send us holy priests, all for the Sacred and Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, all for the Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart of Mary, in union with St. Joseph.

We pray that the Blessed Mother wrap her mantle around your priests, and through her intercession strengthen them for their ministry. We pray that Mary will guide your priests to follow her own words, "Do whatever He tells you." (Jn 2:5) May your priests be holy, filled with the fire of Your love, seeking nothing but Your greater glory and the salvation of souls. Amen.

Bulletin Reflection

Alleluia! He is risen! Jesus Christ has risen from the dead just as He said He would. In today's Gospel, Mary Magdala, Peter and the Beloved Disciple (believed to be John) go to the resting place of Jesus, only to find He is not there.

THE YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH PRAYER

To you, O blessed Joseph (Ad te, beate Ioseph)

To you, O blessed Joseph, do we come in our afflictions, and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also.

Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities.

O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ; O most loving father, ward off from us every contagion of error and corrupting influence; O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness.

As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your example and your aid, we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness, and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven. Amen.

Easter 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Lord is truly risen, Alleluia! Around the world and across Long Island, we proclaim this marvelous truth. Good news is ours. Sin and death have been vanquished. Christ has conquered. God is victorious!

In light of the suffering and death of the past year, how blessed we are to behold again the Mystery of the Resurrection. These months have been dark and bleak. They have been long and challenging. Yet, as we encounter Easter 2021, we are reminded that God has the final word. Indeed, Light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it (John 1:5). This Light, Jesus Christ, illumines our path. He gives hope. As the Fathers of the Second Vatican Council said:

Through Christ and in Christ, the riddles of sorrow and death grow meaningful. Apart from His Gospel, they overwhelm us. Christ has risen, destroying death by His death; He has lavished life upon us so that...we can cry out in the Spirit: Abba, Father.¹

With significant challenges facing us still on Long Island and across the globe, with darkness still afoot, perhaps the joy of Easter is difficult to embrace. Our hearts maybe like those of the disciples who went on Easter dawn to anoint the Lord's body. At the strange sight of an empty tomb and an apparently absent Jesus, instead of experiencing immediate joy, they were confused and distressed. Only in seeing the Lord face to face did they come to embrace His rising from the dead.

Like Mary Magdalene and the other disciples, we need to see Christ alive among us. We need to see the Resurrection in our midst. So, this Easter, let us ask, "Where is Christ alive?"

Christ is alive in the countless frontline workers, civil servants, and medical professionals who have served so faithfully and so heroically this past year. Their sacrificial love and Good Samaritan-willingness to help neighbors in need radiate the Lord Jesus!

Christ is alive in the catechumens who have received the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation at the Easter Vigil. Their reception of the Sacraments reminds us of the power of our own Baptism – where each of us has died with Christ and risen with Him to new life.

Above all, Christ is alive in His risen and glorified presence in the Eucharist and in the transforming power of His Body and Blood that we receive in the celebration of the Mass. Christ is alive, and therefore the Church is alive. The Eucharist is the source of this life – and its power has become perhaps more evident than ever, after months of separation from the weekly and daily celebration of the Mass. Together, we recall the disciples' recognition of Jesus following the Resurrection at Emmaus in the opening of the Scriptures and the breaking of the Bread. We are grateful for the many ways in which our parishes and schools have continued to foster creatively this Emmaus experience on Long Island, both in-person and virtually. May we continue to recognize the Sunday Eucharist as the source from which the life of the Resurrected Christ bursts forth into the world.

At his Sunday Angelus on January 3, 2021, Pope Francis beautifully reminded us of Christ's continued presence in our midst:

"I like to think that when the Lord prays to the Father for us, he does not merely speak: he shows him the wounds of the flesh, he shows him the wounds he suffered for us. This is Jesus: with his flesh he is the intercessor, he wanted to bear even the signs of suffering. Jesus, with his flesh, is before the Father. Indeed, the Gospel says that He came to dwell among us. He did not come to visit us, and then leave; He came to dwell with us, to stay with us."²

May we continue to encounter the presence of Jesus Christ who dwells in and through His Church. May we continue to experience signs of His Resurrection even amidst the challenges and crosses we embrace, and may this encounter continue to fill our hearts, so that our voices can confidently cry out: The Lord is truly risen! Alleluia!

Faithfully in the Lord,

~Pope John Paul II

St. Vincent de Paul Society

We can hardly grasp the joy and glory of Easter Sunday! The disciples didn't understand, but they came to believe. So can we. Easter Sunday is more than a celebration of the resurrection of Christ. It is also an invitation to each of us to preach the Gospel and take our place in the long line of witnesses to Jesus' resurrected life. This is why we are so awed at the mystery: not only that Jesus was raised from the dead but that God entrusts us with Jesus' mission and to be witness of God's mighty deed of resurrection. It appears as though God trusts us a great deal.

(Living Liturgy, p112)

Lord, in your resurrection, you brought joy to the disciples.

Saint Isidore of Seville was a prolific writer, and capable administrator of his diocese. Following his brother as bishop of Seville, he founded schools and seminaries, and he was known for his encyclopedic knowledge. Perhaps Isidore's greatest accomplishment is that he was a holy man.

Reflection

Our society can well use Isidore's spirit of combining learning and holiness. Loving, understanding and knowledge can heal and bring a broken people back together. We are not barbarians like the invaders of Isidore's Spain. But people who are swamped by riches and overwhelmed by scientific and technological advances can lose much of their understanding love for one another.
